

Office of Mayor Jerry Sanders

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 11, 2006

SANDERS NOMINATES LOCAL BANK EXECUTIVE TO SAN DIEGO WATER AUTHORITY

San Diego – Mayor Jerry Sanders has nominated Thomas V. Wornham for appointment to the San Diego County Water Authority. Mr. Wornham will go before the City Council for confirmation on Tuesday, May 16, 2006. Mr. Wornham is an Executive Vice President and Regional Manager for Wells Fargo's San Diego Regional Commercial Banking Office. As area head, Mr. Wornham manages eleven commercial middle market relationship managers in the San Diego, Southern Riverside and Imperial Counties. In this capacity he directs the business of originating and managing lending activity for traditional and non-traditional banking products and services and oversees a commercial banking region that serves companies with annual sales of $10MM and greater.

Mr. Wornham earned his bachelor's degree in Political Science and International Relations at the University of California, Berkeley and a Graduate degree at the School of Credit and Financial Management at Stanford University.

Mr. Wornham has been active in many professional and community organizations, among them: Member and Vice Chair of the San Diego Regional Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors; member and Treasurer of the San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors; Century Club Board of Directors; United Way/Chad Campaign Chairman in 2001; a member of the Association of Retarded Citizens Foundation; and Vice President of the Arthritis Foundation Board.

Page 2

Mr. Wornham will complete the unexpired term of Nora Jaeschke who has resigned, for a term ending May 5, 2009.

###